Bob-

I've got a couple questions regarding a summons I received yesterday for the Robert Harvey case. First, it says I need to appear on October 3, 2011 for a pre-trial conference. Obviously that date has passed, and I'm guessing that a trial date was set at that point. Is that correct? If so, what is the correct trial date? Second, when I looked up the drug lab number given ([REDACTED]), I came up with [REDACTED]. I know it is possible for the et al. to include [REDACTED], but I wonder if this is the correct as the drugs were submitted in 2010 and the docket number indicates that it is a 2011 case. By looking up [REDACTED] in our database, I did see another drug number with his name on it ([REDACTED] = 0.12g cocaine). Would you please verify what the correct drug lab number for this case is? On a side note, Rebecca Pontes received a summons for the [REDACTED] case (# [REDACTED]) that also listed [REDACTED] ([REDACTED]) as the lab number. She looked up the name and is wondering if [REDACTED] are the correct numbers for that case? Thanks.
